By Charles Cedric C. Almadrones

If you are finding delicious cookies fresh from the oven, Manila's cookies are the best for you. The ingredients for this are all authentic and originally based on the owner of this business. Riz Allyson Aranas was the head owner who started this kind of business. She said that this business started during this quarantine period. It was owned by her and her another sister. Their goal was to share to everyone the goodness of their cookies and the feeling of happiness of the youth. She also said that the customers can guarantee that the chewiness of the cookies will be sustained as they deliver it. Manila's Cookies are so great that even the youth are buying it. Cookies are known for its chewiness that's why Manila's cookies focused on that. Also, how about the price. Luckily, you can buy this in an affordable price. They offer a box of cookies having 6 large pieces for just 260 pesos. Imagine that, in this \times you can see other cookie products selling in a larger amount, but the Manila's cookie offers lower price. And thinking about the quality, you will not regret it. One of their satisfied customers give a feedback that what he liked about the Manila's Cookie are the affordability of the cookie. He said that the cookies are sweet, big, a bit salty, but not too much, and it has chocolate chunks. "It has what I could ask for in a cookie" he said. Bases on his testimony, I could say that this cookie are for all the people who are craving cookies. Not just with a low price but has a great variety of tastes.
